Dear Sir or Madam:

Our recent examination of the above information return disclosed that your organization continues to qualify for exemption from Federal income tax. Accordingly, the return is accepted as filed.

However, the following item(s) were noted:

Our examination disclosed that your organization failed to furnish the names and addresses of all your officers, directors, and trustees and the compensation paid to each of them as required by section 1.6033-2(a)(2)(ii)(g) of the Income Tax Regulations. This information must be provided with your Form 990 in future years.

We will appreciate your compliance with the above requirements.

Sincerely yours,

Paul M. Harrington
District Director

Gentlemen:

PURPOSE Educational
ADDRESS INQUIRIES & FILE RETURNS WITH DISTRICT DIRECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE  Jacksonville
FORM 990-A RE- QUIRED	ACCOUNTING PERIOD ENDING
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO	March 31

On the basis of your stated purposes and the understanding that your operations will continue as evidenced to date or will conform to those proposed in your ruling application, we have concluded that you are exempt from Federal income tax as an organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Any changes in operation from those described, or in your character or purposes, must be reported immediately to your District Director for consideration of their effect upon your exempt status. You must also report any change in your name or address.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns so long as you retain an exempt status, unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income imposed by section 511 of the Code, in which event you are required to file Form 990-T. Our determination as to your liability for filing the annual information return, Form 990-A, is set forth above. That return, if required, must be filed on or before the 15th day of the fifth month after the close of your annual accounting period indicated above.

Contributions made to you are deductible by donors as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers or gifts to or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes under the provisions of section 2055, 2106 and 2522 of the Code.

You are not liable for the taxes imposed under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) unless you file a waiver of exemption certificate as provided in such act. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act. Inquiries about the waiver of exemption certificate for social security taxes should be addressed to this office, as should any questions concerning excise, employment or other Federal taxes.

This is a determination letter.

Very truly yours,

F. S. Schmidt
