Born in Bolivia, South America Augusto Argandoña immigrated to the United States in 1959 with a dream of becoming either a designer, or Artist. Following some menial jobs he enrolled at a college in California and earned a degree in Fine Art.

After a stint in the US armed forces he went back to being a student taking advantage of the VA's educational benefits. Two years later he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Design from The California State University. For the next 20 years he worked as a Designer at various industries all the while following his passion for art and painting.

In 1990 he made a career change to Fine Art and never regreted it. While in upstate New York Argandoña began teaching watercolor painting to adults, and exhibited his paintings at mall shows and outdoor venues in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia, but it was not until he moved to Sarasota that his new art career blossomed beyond his expectations.

The large snowbird and international audience became the bulk of his large clientele. Noticing the absence of prints of popular tourist locations, he painted a few images of Siesta Key locations which completely sold at a local outdoor venue, this success fueled his enthusiasm and the artist began painting images of tourist locations from Anna Maria island to Boca Grande.

In addition to painting and exhibiting his art, Argandoña also offered classes and workshops at Sarasota area art centers.

When Covid arrived and many art centers temporarily closed, the artist taught himself the technicalities of online classes, and he began teaching to students across the US, but he still yearns for the personal teaching form of the classroom.

In 1992 Argandoña's art was featured in North Light Magazine, an art publication with national circulation, and in 2016, and 2017 his art was featured in Gulf Coast living Magazine, in 2021 his art was also featured in Plein Air Magazine.

In 2022 Argandoña received the honor of being named Master Artist by the Florida Suncoast Watercolor Society. In the same year he also received the honor of being included in American Watercolor.

The artist's original paintings and prints are part of private, corporate, and public collections throughout North America, and Europe.

His paintings have won Best of Show, First Place, and other awards at shows in New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and Florida.

For the artist all of this was once a dream....now he is living his dream!

Judy Gilmer's Biography:

Judy has been making art since she was a child and made critters from clay dirt, drawing on her school papers (which her primary teachers did not appreciate). Music, nature and travel inspire her artwork. She responds to the surface as she creates and through this internal dialogue, she works until she is willing to share her painting with the collective art world. While this process of painting can produce a very fresh painterly outcome, it may create a beautiful surface with a long history that peeks through the surface and creates depth. Contact her at www.judygilmer.com or at judy.gilmer@gmail.com.

#805 Sumi-e Painting Workshop-January
Instructor: Keiko Romerstein

This course is broken into two sections:

The first day you will study plum blossoms This is the fourth subject to learn for every beginner after chrysanthemum, orchid and bamboo. After these four subjects, you can paint almost everything that you want to paint. We call these four subjects, "Four Gentlemen". These four are symbol of gentlemen because they may bend with wind, the storm and rain, but they never break, and they always come back when the season comes. They are true gentlemen of courage and endurance. The second day will focus on vegetables This is a very popular subject for Sumi-e and we are very familiar from our everyday life. Sometimes they are accompanied with a dish, basket, and even insects.

Keiko Romerstein's Biography:

I was born and educated in Tokyo, Japan. I came to New York City in 1973 and moved to Sarasota upon my husband's retirement in 1994. In New York I studied Interior Design at New York School of Interior Design. After finishing the practical training course, I always engaged to work in the creative field. In my life I have studied watercolor, acrylic and oil painting by various master painters. In recent years I am painting more Sumi-E painting. My paintings have been exhibited locally and internationally. My paintings portray a multi-cultural background as well as my feelings and energy. They reflect my true love of nature with all their beauty, greatness, imperfections and eternity. For Sumi-E paintings, I have studied with great masters such as the late Tesshin Sasaki (Japan), Late Prof. I-Hsing Ju (USA) and Prof. Chan (USA). I achieved the Japanese instructor level of Sumi-E by Master Yoshin Kojima (Japan). Currently my scroll painting is displayed in the tea house of the Ringling Museum of Art. I am a member of the National Sumi-E Society of America and its Sarasota Chapter, as well as a member of Petticoat Painter of Sarasota.

Artist's Statement:

Working with brushes and rice papers and Sumi ink, stroke by stroke, brings me a kind of Meditation. When I teach Sumi-e it gives me a second chance to learn as if I am a beginner, Fully attentive in the creative mind. I enjoy my students learning and their pleasure. As a Japanese born person, I feel this art form (Sumi-e) should be continued from generation to generation. Sometimes I combine the techniques Sumi-e and watercolor to express more freedom of my own. Unlike Western paintings, Sumi-e artists do not sketch on rich paper, we just draw with certain strokes to express essence of subjects. Perspectives, light, shade are not significant yet white or empty space is important for the balance and composition of work. Each brush stroke is only a one-time occurrence. This is the most important promise for Sumi-e. We cannot repeat another stroke on the stroke to correct. It is just like our life. We cannot correct our past. Each occurrence in our life is only one time happening. So, we do our best to meet people with respect. So, I paint endless beauty and mystery of great nature with my best stroke. An ancient master said, only diligent practice will make a perfect painting.

#806 Oil Painting: Beginner to Advanced Workshop Instructor: Hodges Soileau

In this painting workshop, Hodges will impart some of the principles that he uses and considers most important, whether one is working in oils, or any medium that uses color.

The principles of shape, value, edges, and color temperature are what are most important. The importance of understanding the effect temperature of light has on color will be explained, stressed and demonstrated, thus increasing one's observation skills, as they relate to these principles.

Hodges will demonstrate how to begin a painting in different ways. There is no one best way to do this. One must remain open to the possibilities, depending on the situation and temperament of the artist. One should have options in their arsenal that allows them to tackle any subject. This may at times require a different approach. This should also prevent one from becoming a formula painter.

Last, but not least, is the importance of trying to have fun with paint. Painting, although not necessarily easy, should certainly be fun or why do it!

Artist Statement

As an artist, I try to paint as honestly as I can. I believe in practicing the sound principles of painting that I have learned and currently teach, but I also believe that an artist should strive for something more than just the technical skill in their work. There is a feeling, or reaction, that one gets when standing in front of a painting or a piece of art. Sometimes it's not an easy thing to describe. It might be the sense of place in a landscape, the light on the subject, or a fleeting expression in a portrait. This is the kind of reaction that one hopes is communicated in his or her painting. The best scenario is when the technical and the emotional aspects of painting are inseparable.

#807 Palette Knife Realism, SELF EXPRESSION, Using Cobra Oils (water mixable) with Many Tools. Taking a cityscape, waterscape & landscape toward abstraction.

Instructor: Karen Weihs

Students will learn various techniques on how to manipulate palette knives and make a great variety of marks that describe realism without big detail. Information will be shared on paint manipulation/brushwork. Each morning there will be demos and in the afternoon I will spend time with each student helping them through the process. Beginners to advanced students can participate in this workshop.

#807A: February 5, 6 & 7

#807B: April 9, 10 & 11

Karen Weihs' Biography:

Using mostly palette knives and particular brushes, Weihs applies pigment in lush impasto layers interspersed with thin glazes that enrich colors and result in canvases that glow with mysterious light and form.

Her realistic works radiate an otherworldly ambience of shimmering colors and swirling shapes, representing whatever subject matter the viewer chooses to see. Drifting clouds reflected in a lake, a distant skyline of forest or city, grey fog rolling across the horizon are these forms real or imagined. Weihs galvanizes her audience's natural curiosity with compositions that border between abstraction and landscape. She alludes to the familiar without telling the story. Her abstracted representational subject matter is deliberately simplified to capture the "idea" or essence of a place, not the reality of it.

Weihs invents each new journey of creation by trusting her intuition completely and by following wherever her hand and intuition lead inside the very textural composition. Like memories that bubble to the surface of the mind, the images her palette knife creates as it carves, smooths, jabs and dances across the surface eventually coalesce to form a holistic picture. She is also an extraordinary teacher known for giving permission to students to explore their creativity, encouraging them to make marks with joyful abandon and experiment with tools and techniques that lead to individual style. Weihs studied with LaMar Dodd at the University of Georgia earning a BFA degree. His repetitive, coloristic modern style was great influence.

Memberships: Salmagundi Art Club, American Women Artists, Catharine Lorillard Wolfe Art Club, Impressionistic Society of America, National Oil and Acrylic Painters Society, Oil Painters of America

"The magic happens and draws me in, and I find myself driven to capture and paint those responses over and over again. It's deeply gratifying. This erudition has earned me a confidence in looking for the cutting edge of paint technique, ever evolving to a higher standard. Usually the viewer can find something of the subject matter to relate to. This process allows me to tackle a subject that may or may not appear as my eyes see, painting the paint."

Karen was born and raised in Charleston, SC, raised two sons and worked with and sold 7 restaurants there with her restaurateur husband, Chris Weihs, also a European trained professional chef. They now live in Venice, FL & spend some summer time weeks with family members out West.

Providing Peace of Mind by Simplifying the Complicated

As a Realtor, I feel that lifestyle and the neighborhood are almost more important than the actual house. I want to know about my customers, their hobbies, and their interests so I can help them discover the right spot. That may be a golf community with a country club or a condo within minutes of sticking their toes in the sand.

I am Shannon Thinnies with eXp Realty, and I am truly here to help....
